Darrell Urban Black is an American visual artist presently living in Frankfurt,

Germany. His variety of artistic formats include pen-and-ink drawings, acrylic paintings on canvas, wood, and mixedmedia objects. Black's process involves a mixture of acrylic paint and found objects combined with non-toxic hot glue. This technique creates a three-dimensional effect on any surface, which gives a sense of realism and presence in his artwork. Black's artwork is permanently displayed in a number of art galleries, museums, and other institutions worldwide.
